May you all enjoy a very happy holiday season!
Program Texts (NEC Chamber Singers)

It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year

It’s the most wonderful time of the year
With the kids jingle belling and everyone telling you “be of good cheer!”
It’s the most wonderful time of the year.

It’s the hap-happiest season of all.
With those holiday greetings and gay happy meetings when friends come to call,
It’s the hap-happiest season of all.

There’ll be parties for hosting, marshmallows for toasting, and caroling out in the snow.
There’ll be scary ghost stories and tales of the glories of Christmases long, long ago.

It’s the most wonderful time of the year.
There’ll be much mistletoeing and hearts will be glowing when loved ones are near.
It’s the most wonderful time of the year.

Carol of the Bells

Hark how the bells, sweet silver bells, all seem to say “Throw cares away.”
Christmas is here, bringing good cheer to young and old, meek and the bold.
Ding dong ding dong, that is their song with joyful ring all caroling.

One seems to hear words of good cheer from everywhere filling the air.
Oh how they pound, raising the sound o’er hill and dale telling their tale.
Gaily they ring while people sing songs of good cheer, Christmas is here
Merry Christmas!

On on they send, on without end, their joyful tone to every home.
Ding dong, ding dong.

The Twelve Days of Christmas

On the first day of Christmas, my true love sent to me a partridge in a pear tree.
On the second day of Christmas, my true love sent to me two turtledoves and a partridge in a pear tree.
On the third day of Christmas, my true love sent to me three French hens, two turtledoves, …
On the fourth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me four calling birds, three French hens, …
On the fifth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me five gold rings, four calling birds, …
On the sixth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me, six geese a-laying, five gold rings, …
On the seventh day of Christmas, my true love sent to me seven swans a-swimming, six geese a-laying, …
On the eighth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me eight maids a-milking, seven swans a-swimming, …
On the ninth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me nine ladies dancing, eight maids a-milking, …
On the tenth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me ten lords a-leaping, nine ladies dancing, …
On the eleventh day of Christmas, my true love sent to me eleven pipers piping, ten lords a-leaping, …
On the twelfth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me twelve drummers drumming, eleven pipers piping, …

Christmas Time is Here

Christmas time is here, happiness and cheer.
Fun for all that children call their fav’rite time of year.
Snowflakes in the air, carols ev’rywhere.
Olden times and ancient rhymes of love and dreams to share.

Sleigh bells in the air, beauty ev’rywhere.
Yuletide by the fireside and joyful mem’ries there. Christmas time is here, we’ll be drawing near.
Oh, that we could always see such spirit through the year.

On Christmas Night

On Christmas night all Christians sing to hear the news the angels bring.
News of great joy, news of great mirth.
News of our merciful King’s birth

Then why should men on earth be sad,
Since our Redeemer made us glad.
When from sin He set us free.
All for to gain our liberty.

When sin departs before His grace,
Then life and health come in its place.
Angels and men with joy may sing.
All for to see the newborn King.

All out of darkness we have light
Which made the angels sing that night:
“Glory to God and peace to men.
Now and forever more, Amen!”
PLEASE JOIN US IN THE SINGING OF THESE SONGS

SANTA CLAUS IS COMIN’ TO TOWN

You better watch out, you better not cry
Better not pout, I’m tellin’ you why:
Santa Claus is comin’ to town.

He’s makin’ a list, checkin’ it twice,
Gonna find out who’s naughty and nice
Santa Claus is comin’ to town.

He sees you when you’re sleepin’,
He knows when you’re awake,
He knows if you’ve been bad or good,
So be good for goodness sake!

Oh! You better watch out, you better not cry
Better not pout, I’m tellin’ you why:
Santa Claus is comin’ to town.

SILVER BELLS

City sidewalks, busy sidewalks, dressed in holiday style.
In the air there’s a feeling of Christmas.
Children laughing, people passing, meeting smile after smile, And on ev’ry street corner you hear:

Silver bells, silver bells, it’s Christmas time in the city. Ring-
along, hear them ring, soon it will be Christmas Day

RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER

Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer had a very shiny nose, And if you ever saw it, you would even say it glows.
All of the other reindeer used to laugh and call him names.
They wouldn’t let poor Rudolph join in any reindeer games.

(The text continues on the following page.)
Then one foggy Christmas Eve, Santa came to say:
“Rudolph, with your nose so bright,
won’t you guide my sleigh tonight?”

Then how the reindeer loved him as they shouted out with glee:
“Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer, you’ll go down in history!”

HAVE YOURSELF A MERRY LITTLE CHRISTMAS

Have yourself a merry little Christmas, let your heart be light,
From now on our troubles will be out of sight.

Have yourself a merry little Christmas, make the Yuletide gay,
From now on our troubles will be miles away.

Here we are as in olden days, happy golden days of yore.
Faithful friends who are dear to us gather near to us once more.

Through the years we all will be together, if the Fates allow.
Hang a shining star upon the highest bough.
And have yourself a merry little Christmas now.

Baba Yetu

Baba yetu, yetu uliye
Mbinguni yetu, yetu amina!
Baba yetu, yetu uliye
Jina lako lilitukuzwe.

Utupe leo chakula chetu
Tunachohitaji utusamehe
Makosa yetu, hey!
Kama nasi tunanyowasamehe
Waliotukosea usitutie
Katika majaribu, lakini
Utuokoe, na yule, muovu e milele!

Ufabme wako ufike utakalo
Lifanyike duniani kama mbinguni. Amina.

Swahili

Our Father, who art in Heaven. Amen!
Our Father, Hallowed be thy name.
Give is this day our daily bread,
Forgive us of Our trespasses
As we forgive others
Who trespass against us
Lead us not into temptation, but
Deliver us from the evil one forever.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done On Earth as it is in Heaven.
Amen.
Let there be peace on earth

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me;
let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God as our Father, we are family.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now;
With ev’ry step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.
Amen.

Navy Band Northeast

Established in 1974, Navy Band Northeast is based on board NAVSTA Newport and is one of 11 official Navy bands worldwide, providing musical support for military ceremonies, recruiting, morale and retention programs, and community relations. The primary components of Navy Band Northeast are: Marching and Ceremonial Bands; Rhode Island Sound (popular music group); Top Brass (brass quintet); and Crosswinds (woodwind trio). Other units consist of various smaller protocol ensembles: solo pianist; solo guitarist; jazz combo; and solo vocalist and guitarist. All ensembles perform a wide range of music from patriotic, classical, contemporary, big band swing, country, and the latest top-40 hits.

The NEC Chamber Singers is an auditioned ensemble, open to all majors at NEC, of 24-28 musicians who perform challenging works from all style periods, with a particular emphasis on 19th-21st century a cappella works. The choir rehearses three times a week and experiences choral music-making in an intimate ensemble setting, typically in the round. Each NEC Chamber Singer is a musician seeking to understand the principles and nuance of superior choral artistry so that they may be prepared for professional opportunities and expectations outside of the Conservatory. The choristers diligently prepare their music outside of scheduled rehearsals which makes the brief time spent together musically invaluable. The ensemble typically performs eight to ten times each academic year: on campus in the Conservatory’s Jordan Hall and at off campus venues in and around greater Boston.
Lt. Matthew Shea is a native of Ellington, Connecticut. He enlisted in the Navy in 2004 and has served as trumpet instrumentalist for the U.S. Naval Academy Band and U.S. Fleet Forces Band, and as an instructor at the Naval School of Music. He received his commission in 2016. As a Limited Duty Officer, he served tours as assistant fleet bandmaster for U.S. Fleet Forces and for U.S. Pacific Fleet prior to arriving at the U.S. Naval War College in July of 2020. He currently serves as director for Navy Band Northeast. Lt. Shea holds Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees in jazz performance from the University of North Texas.

Erica J. Washburn
Director of Choral Activities
Conductor and mezzo-soprano Erica J. Washburn has been Director of Choral Activities at New England Conservatory since 2009. Known for her student-centric approach to classroom and rehearsal instruction, and commitment to the performance of new music, she is the recipient of several outstanding alumni awards, including the distinguished honor of induction to the Westminster Choir College Music Education Hall of Fame.

As a conductor, Washburn has worked with Kansas City, MO based Cardinalis, the Yale Schola Cantorum, the East Carolina University Women's Chorale, and the Eastman Women's Chorus. She is a sought-after guest clinician who frequently leads state and regional festival choruses, and spent five summers as a conductor and voice faculty member for the New York State Summer School of the Arts School of Choral Studies.

Under her direction, the NEC choirs have been featured on several live and pre-recorded broadcasts, including the North Carolina based station WCPE Great Sacred Music, WICN Public Radio, and WGBH Boston. The choirs can also be heard in collaboration with the Boston Modern Orchestra Project on the BMOP/Sound recording Paul Moravec: The Blizzard Voices.

Washburn’s stage credits include appearances as Madame Lidoine in Francis Poulenc’s Dialogues of the Carmelites, Rebecca Nurse in Robert Ward’s The Crucible, Mother/Allison in the premiere of Lee Hoiby’s This is the Rill Speaking and others. Her recital and orchestral solo credits are numerous, and her live premiere from Jordan Hall of the late Richard Toensing’s Night Songs and Evening Prayers with the New England Conservatory Symphonic Winds can be heard on Albany Records.

William Drury
Director of Symphonic Winds
William Drury is NEC’s Associate Conductor of Wind Ensembles and directs the NEC Symphonic Winds. He is also Music Director and Conductor of the Falmouth Chamber Orchestra and plays saxophone with the Jimmy Capone Big Band.

As a conductor, Drury has premiered works by composers such as Bell, Pinkham, Fletcher, Popkin, and Zorn; conducted orchestras at Harvard, Brown, and Brandeis universities and numerous Air Force bands throughout the nation; and has previously been MIT’s Assistant Conductor of Orchestras, conductor of the Boston
Conservatory’s Wind Ensemble, assistant conductor of the Civic Orchestra of Boston, and conductor of the Auros Chamber Orchestra. As a jazz saxophonist, Drury has performed with Natalie Cole, the Coasters, Dave Stewart and MFB, and played lead tenor sax with the Bob Curnow Big Band. Before entering undergraduate studies, he worked for five years as a track laborer for the Burlington Northern Railroad.
