

RPTS – Student Audio/Video Engineer

No. of Jobs Available:	4
Supervisor:	Lisa Nigris, Director of RPTS
Contact:	RPTS@necmusic.edu

Job Summary:

The RPTS student staff record/stream events in halls other than Jordan Hall. They will also assist with Jordan Hall concerts as score readers, camera switchers or stage assistants for amplified events. RPTS student workers are also trained to provide technical support to faculty and students. They will assist with delivery and set up of gear as needed to support classes and events.

Job Duties / Qualifications:

Some knowledge of computers and recording is preferred, but a genuine interest is also desirable. Reliability is imperative as is the ability to lift audio gear (potentially upwards of 40lbs).

The position is compensated at $15 per hour.

The desired start date is 09/18/2023.

How to Apply:

Please email a resume and cover letter to RPTS@necmusic.edu